

Erasmus placement offer

Short introduction to the Company:

Bay Zoltan Foundation for Applied Research (www.bayzoltan.org), Institute for Logistics and Production Systems, Department of Materials Development is a highly innovative group on the field of materials science and technology, situated in Miskolctapolca, Hungary near the famous Cave Bath (www.barlangfurdo.hu). Our specialty is metal foams see more on www.femhab.hu. We can offer free accommodation.

Requested profile of the Erasmus student:

Motivated person with materials related background: materials engineer, chemist, physicist, mechanical engineer.

Duration offered (from – to): 1-6 month

Expectation and tasks:

We expect perfect English skill, motivated person, ability to handle computer softwares, ability to handle experimental devices, ability to summarize topics based on internet search.

Task is related with participation in problem solving and innovations on the field of materials science and engineering.

Required language(s): English

How to apply?

Send an application to Dr. Norbert Babcsán the head of the department to babcsan.norbert@bay-logi.hu .