

EFSC INTERNSHIP

ORGANIZATION PROFILE

The European Federation for Street Children (EFSC) is a Luxembourg-based network established in 1994 which is committed to improving the situation of street children. The network unites non-governmental organisations that are committed to improving the situation of street children and other groups of children at risk on a non for profit basis. The network has 33 member organisations: 24 organisations are situated in 16 EU Member States (Belgium, Bulgaria, Czech Republic, Estonia, France, Greece, Hungary, Italy, Malta, Poland, Portugal, Romania, Slovakia, Spain, the Netherlands and United Kingdom), 1 candidate country (Macedonia) 2 in Non EU, EFTA Country (Bosnia and Herzegovina, Kosovo) and 6 outside the EU (Bangladesh, Colombia, India, Nigeria, Peru and South Africa) that are committed to this cause by providing them with information and advice concerning all the EU's children and youth-related policies and assistance programmes, and by facilitating the exchange of best practice between members on methods to support street children and foster their social reintegration.

EFSC acts as a platform for lobbying and advocacy towards the European Union, aiming for better mutual exchange and co-operation between EU policy-makers and NGOs working in the field for the improvement of the rights and living conditions of street children. With a particular operational focus on European countries, EFSC also acts as an information broker for NGOs worldwide on all EU-related topics and developments concerning street children.
