TRAVEL INFORMATION

Izmir Adnan Menderes Airport has several direct flights from/to European cities. You can check Turkish Airlines (www.thy.com.tr), Lufthansa (http://lufthansa.com) or Sun Express (http://sunexpress.com) which has direct flights to Izmir.

You can also check flights to Istanbul Atatürk Airport which can cost cheaper. Then you can take the connection flight to Izmir. Istanbul-Izmir is 1 hour by plane. Please note that there are two airports in Istanbul (Ataturk and Sabiha Gökçen). You should check which airport you are landing in order not to make mistake with the connection from Istanbul to Izmir. These two airports are very far away from each other. We recommend to land to Atatürk Airport (main airport).

2. Domestic Flights

3. Local Transport

Selçuk Yaşar Campus is easily accessible and situated on various local transport routes. You can reach the Campus by metro in 15 minutes from the city centre. If you come to Izmir by air, you will arrive at Adnan Menderes Airport. From the airport, there are four options for you to arrive Selçuk Yaşar Campus.

By Taxi

Taxis are readily available in Turkey, and can be found at the airport, in front of the arrivals building. Tell the taxi driver that you would like to go to `Yasar University Selçuk Yaşar Campus, located in Bornova, and beside the Bölge metro station`. It costs around 20 Euros.

By “HAVAŞ” Buses

HAVAS is the name of the company that can bring you directly from the airport to Izmir city centre, called Alsancak. You can find the Havas bus in front of the airport international arrivals building. The cost is around 5 Euros. The timetable for the HAVAS buses is available from the official web page http://www.havas.com.tr/en/

By Public Bus

You can take public bus to the city center Alsancak or to Bornova where Yasar Campus is located. The bus departs from the front of the domestic and the international arrivals buildings at the airport at 20 minutes before every hour. The payment is made once you are on the bus and the cost is around 2 Euros. Wait on the bus until the final destination at BORNOVA metro station. From there, take the metro and get off at BOLGE metro station. You will find yourself just in front of the university campus.
IZBAN (Rail System)

You may use IZBAN which is a commuter rail system departing from the Adnan Menderes Airport. If you use IZBAN, change train at “Halkapınar” station and take the metro to “Bornova” direction. Yasar University Campus is just at “BOLGE” stop of the metro.

Kent Card (City Travel Card)

In Izmir to take bus, metro, ferry you should use a special card called "Kentcard" which you can load money. If you do not have Kent Card, you can also buy tokens or pay on the bus.

If you travel by Kent Kard within 90 minutes, your second and following travels are free of charge. You show your “Kentcard” to the machines on the bus, entrance of the metro and ferry however it does not charge any money.
