Basic Rules

- Erasmus Programme is carried out by the EU Centre at Yaşar University.
- There should be a signed Erasmus agreement between universities! http://erasmus.yasar.edu.tr (Partners)
- Erasmus Agreement must be signed which belongs to your department.
- Each agreement contains different numbers of student exchange. (Quota eligibility)
- To get at least 60 from English Proficiency Exam which is organised by Yaşar University School of Foreign Languages. (Should be at least 70 for students who study at Department of English Language and Literature, Translation and Interpretation)
- To be successful at Online Language Support exam (OLS)
- To ensure the CGPA average grade condition.
- To make an online application (http://applyerasmus.yasar.edu.tr)
Basic Rules

- Candidates who found convenient to benefit from Erasmus programme being informed by the EU Center then they make their course selection from the host university with their Erasmus department coordinators. Courses are mutually matched by checking contents. Evaluation is made towards ECTS credits.

- Prepared Learning Agreement is signed and approved by the student, the Erasmus department coordinator, head of department, Erasmus Institutional Coordinator and host university’s Erasmus coordinators.

- It is essential that the recognition of all taken courses and credits.

- Students depend on the YU Education and Examination Regulations in their course selections.

- Associate Degree and Bachelor: The minimum is 20 ECTS for a semester
Erasmus+ / On-line language support for Erasmus outgoing students (OLS)

Within the Erasmus+ period, students who will attend to Erasmus program (except speaking in their mother tongue), will be subject to an online language exam before and after the mobility. These exams are applied in different six languages which are German, English, Spanish, French, Italian and Dutch.

There is a possibility to provide language support to students whose first exam grade is low.

- If the student doesn’t complete the first language exam, it is not possible to sign a contract with the student and accordingly students are not sent abroad.
- This system has been developed to improve language proficiency of students, to increase the quality of mobility and to measure positive effects of mobility.
IMPORTANT!

- Applications: Calendar begins one year in advance!
- The online application form should be prepared from the page http://applyerasmus.yasar.edu.tr, printed, signed and submitted to your Erasmus Department Coordinator by attaching all other obligatory documents until the application deadline!
- The application form should be filled out correctly because incomplete students’ applications will be eliminated.
- Students may apply even having disciplinary punishment or having failed courses in advance.
- You are paying your annual tuition fee only to your home university!
- Available current scholarships continues at your home university. Read the scholarship directive! In case of prolonged period, you may lose your scholarship at home university.
Selection of Students

- Grant availability and contingency list
- «-10 Point» practice is implemented in the selection of a student for each mobility previously participated.

Academic Success Level: %50

Language Level: %50
You can apply both for placement mobility and for the student mobility as granted student 😊

The same student, regardless of the type and number of mobility activities, may receive grants up to a total of 12 months in each educational level.
ERASMUS PROGRAMME IS NOT A SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAMME!

ERASMUS IS A PROGRAMME WHICH ENCOURAGES STUDENT MOBILITY!
